Broward Coalition on Aging's Cheryl Wilson Memorial Fund Application for Assistance

Cheryl Wilson was an advocate for older adults who devoted many years to helping the poor and elderly of Broward County. Ms. Wilson had completed a term as President of the Broward Coalition on Aging when she died of cancer at the age of 58 in 2006. In honor of her dedication to Broward's seniors, the Broward Coalition on Aging established the Cheryl Wilson Memorial Fund to provide small grants to persons 55+ years who demonstrate need and the ability to remain solvent after receiving a grant.
